PRIVATE ISLAND INFORMATION

EFFORTLESSLY CONVENIENT

- "Ithaafushi" means "Pearl Island" in Dhivehi, the local language of the Maldives and represents the isle's beauty and distinction.
- Located between a beautiful sheltered lagoon and the warm Indian Ocean.
- Surrounded by breathtaking coral reefs and clear waters.
- The largest Maldivian private island spanning 32,000 sqm / 344,445 sqf in the heart of the Indian Ocean.
- Approximately forty minutes by private yacht and fifteen minutes by seaplane flight from Malé International Airport.
- Waldorf Astoria Maldives Ithaafushi's personal concierge team will ensure a guest's every need is met with utmost discretion.
- The island benefits from a warm, summery climate year-round: temperatures average between 26°C/79°F and 29°C/84°F throughout the year, with the warmest temperatures occurring between March and April.

A SPACE OF YOUR OWN

- The island accommodates 24 guests (18 Adults & 6 children) across two elegantly designed villas and one four-bedroom residence.
- The three-bedroom beach villa, set within lush gardens and coconut palm canopies, has its own beach access and two swimming pools.
- A two-bedroom overwater villa promises a unique ocean experience with two spacious master bedrooms complete with double dressing rooms, indoor and outdoor rain showers, a shared living room, infinity pool and jacuzzi.
- A four-bedroom residence showcases two king bedrooms, two queen bedrooms, jacuzzies and an expansive common living area, all with direct access to the beach.
- Each villa features enhanced outdoor spaces, furnished with elegant yet comfortable lounges facing stunning ocean views.
- The private island offers unrivalled privacy and service, with dedicated staff from personal concierge to private chefs.

WORLD-CLASS DINING

- The private island's dedicated culinary team promises to take guests on a diverse culinary journey, offering bespoke menus to be enjoyed in an array of extraordinary settings. Guests can savor world-class dining for any occasion, from in-villa dining to special celebrations in the estate's common living room, "Haali" meaning "The Nest" in Dhivehi.
- Guests can journey a short distance to the main island, where culinary innovation meets excellence with eleven specialty dining venues such as The Ledge, Zuma Maldives and Terra.
- Created by Dave Pynt, the culinary mastermind behind Singapore's Michelin starred Burnt Ends restaurant, The Ledge features an elevated Australian barbecue experience that can be savored against the stunning backdrop of the Indian Ocean.
- Guests can also enjoy the only private handcrafted bamboo dining pods in the Maldives at Terra, located on the main island's highest point for a unique gastronomic escapade.
- Private Dining - Our soft sands provide the perfect romantic setting for a bespoke dining experience or extraordinary private celebrations under the Maldivian sky.

A MOMENT OF ZEN

- A dedicated wellness concierge is on hand at the overwater spa to provide customised therapies catering to the needs of each guest, helping them reconnect with nature while indulging in a unique spa experience.
- A stunning yoga pavilion provides an inspiring space for al fresco yoga and mindful outdoor exercises from sunrise to sunset.
- A fully equipped fitness centre offers magnificent ocean views, with personal training and classes upon request.
- Fresh, healthy and natural menus are curated by our culinary experts to compliment any wellness agenda with inventive and flavorful alternatives.

UNINHIBITED EXPERIENCES

- A total of five pools will offer guests their own dedicated spaces to relax and enjoy the unique island atmosphere.
- Be transported from everyday life as they unwind on one of the ocean swings, take a moment to relax under the palm hammocks or sunken pool loungers.
- A myriad of entertainment choices are available in the "Haali", catering to guests of every generation. The remarkable space features unblocked panoramic ocean views and extends across expansive indoor and outdoor areas, all set within a botanical sanctuary.
- Guests can host memorable celebrations under the stars, watch a movie on the cinematic LED screen or bask in the 35-metre infinity pool.
- Young guests will be in a paradise of their own on the private island with a dedicated children's pool and gaming area or enjoy the Stars Club and Club Nova - teens club at the main resort, which features a water recreation area and a variety of bespoke activities designed to capture the imagination.
- Explore the sparkling depths of the underwater world with a plethora of water sports, diving activities and yacht excursions.
- Embark on an off-island experience to a private sandbank in the middle of the ocean where guests can indulge in a sunset dinner, a personal yoga session or simply take in the astonishing surroundings.
- The latest addition to our recreation activity portfolio, the tennis and padel tennis courts guarantee a fun-filled session for adults and kids alike.
- Ithaafushi - The Private Island also offers an idyllic stage for the ultimate dream wedding in paradise, with culinary offerings and experiences that are expertly tailored by the dedicated events team to create an iconic wedding with memories to last a lifetime.
